

Villanova University Campus Security Statistics

Prepared by: Katherine Cosner

Some Notes

- These data were collected using two sources:
 - Pennsylvania State Police Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) System Reports
 - Villanova University Annual Security and Fire Safety Reports (2010 and 2013)

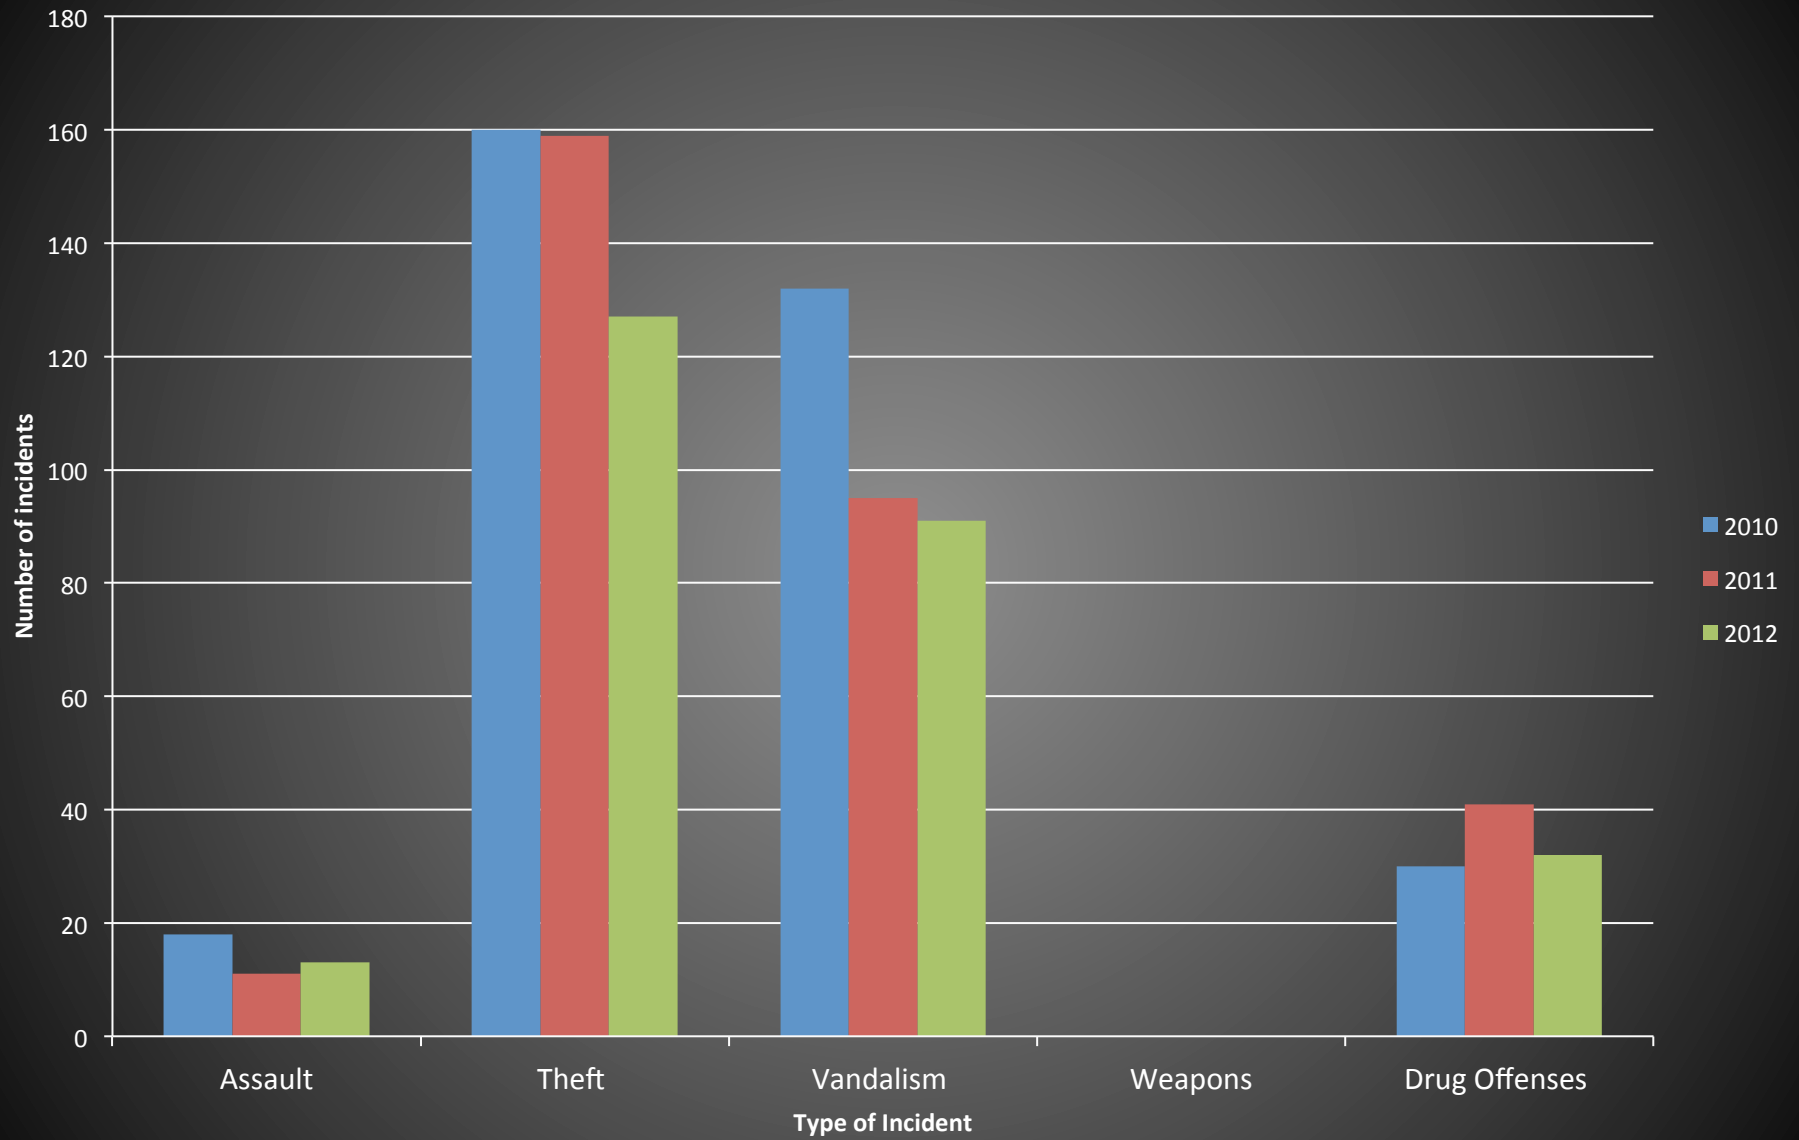

Total Reported Campus Incidents

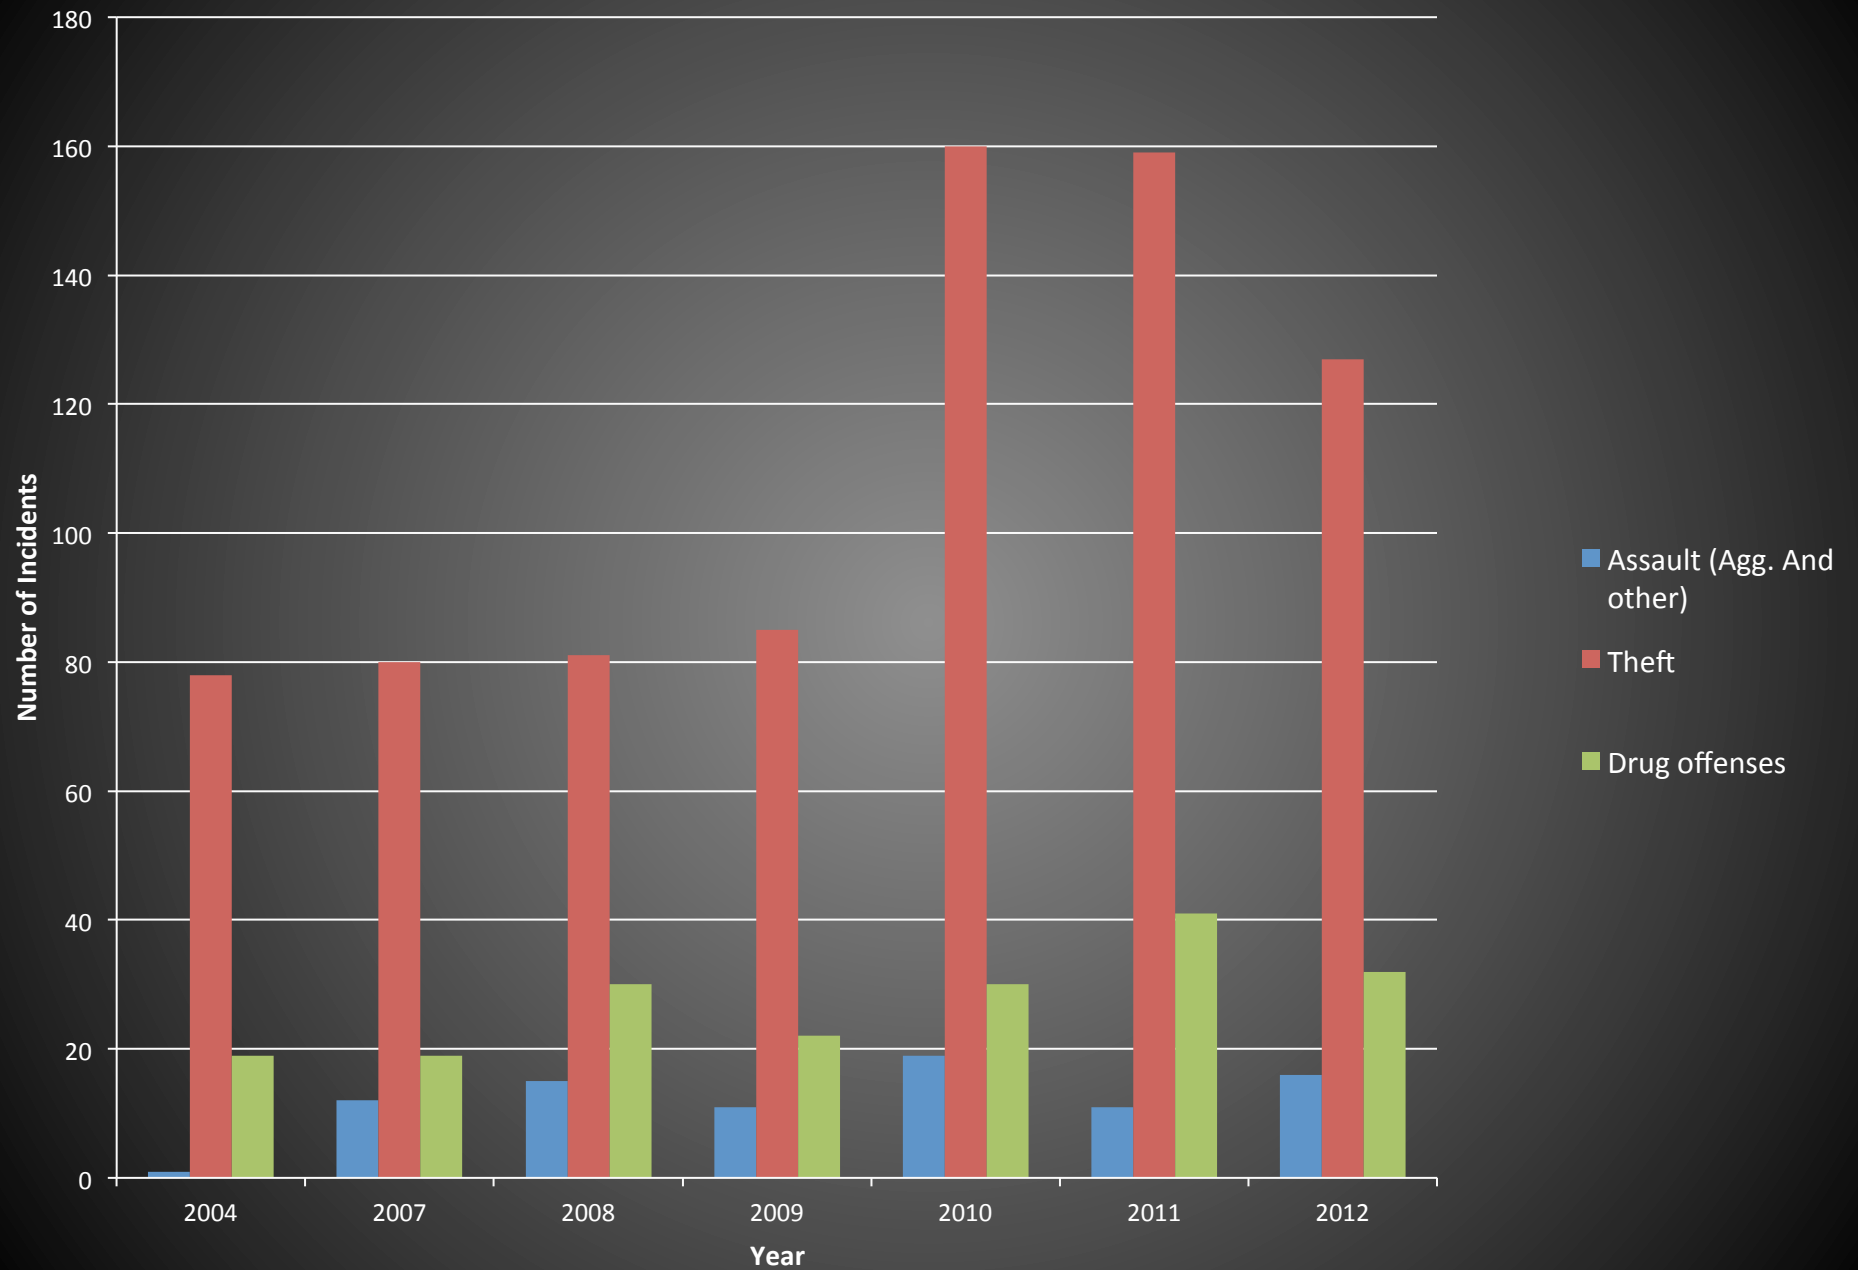

Murder, Manslaughter, and Weapons

- There were no instances of murder or manslaughter in 2004, or in the years 2007-2012
- A single weapons violation occurred in 2007

Three Year Trends in Crime

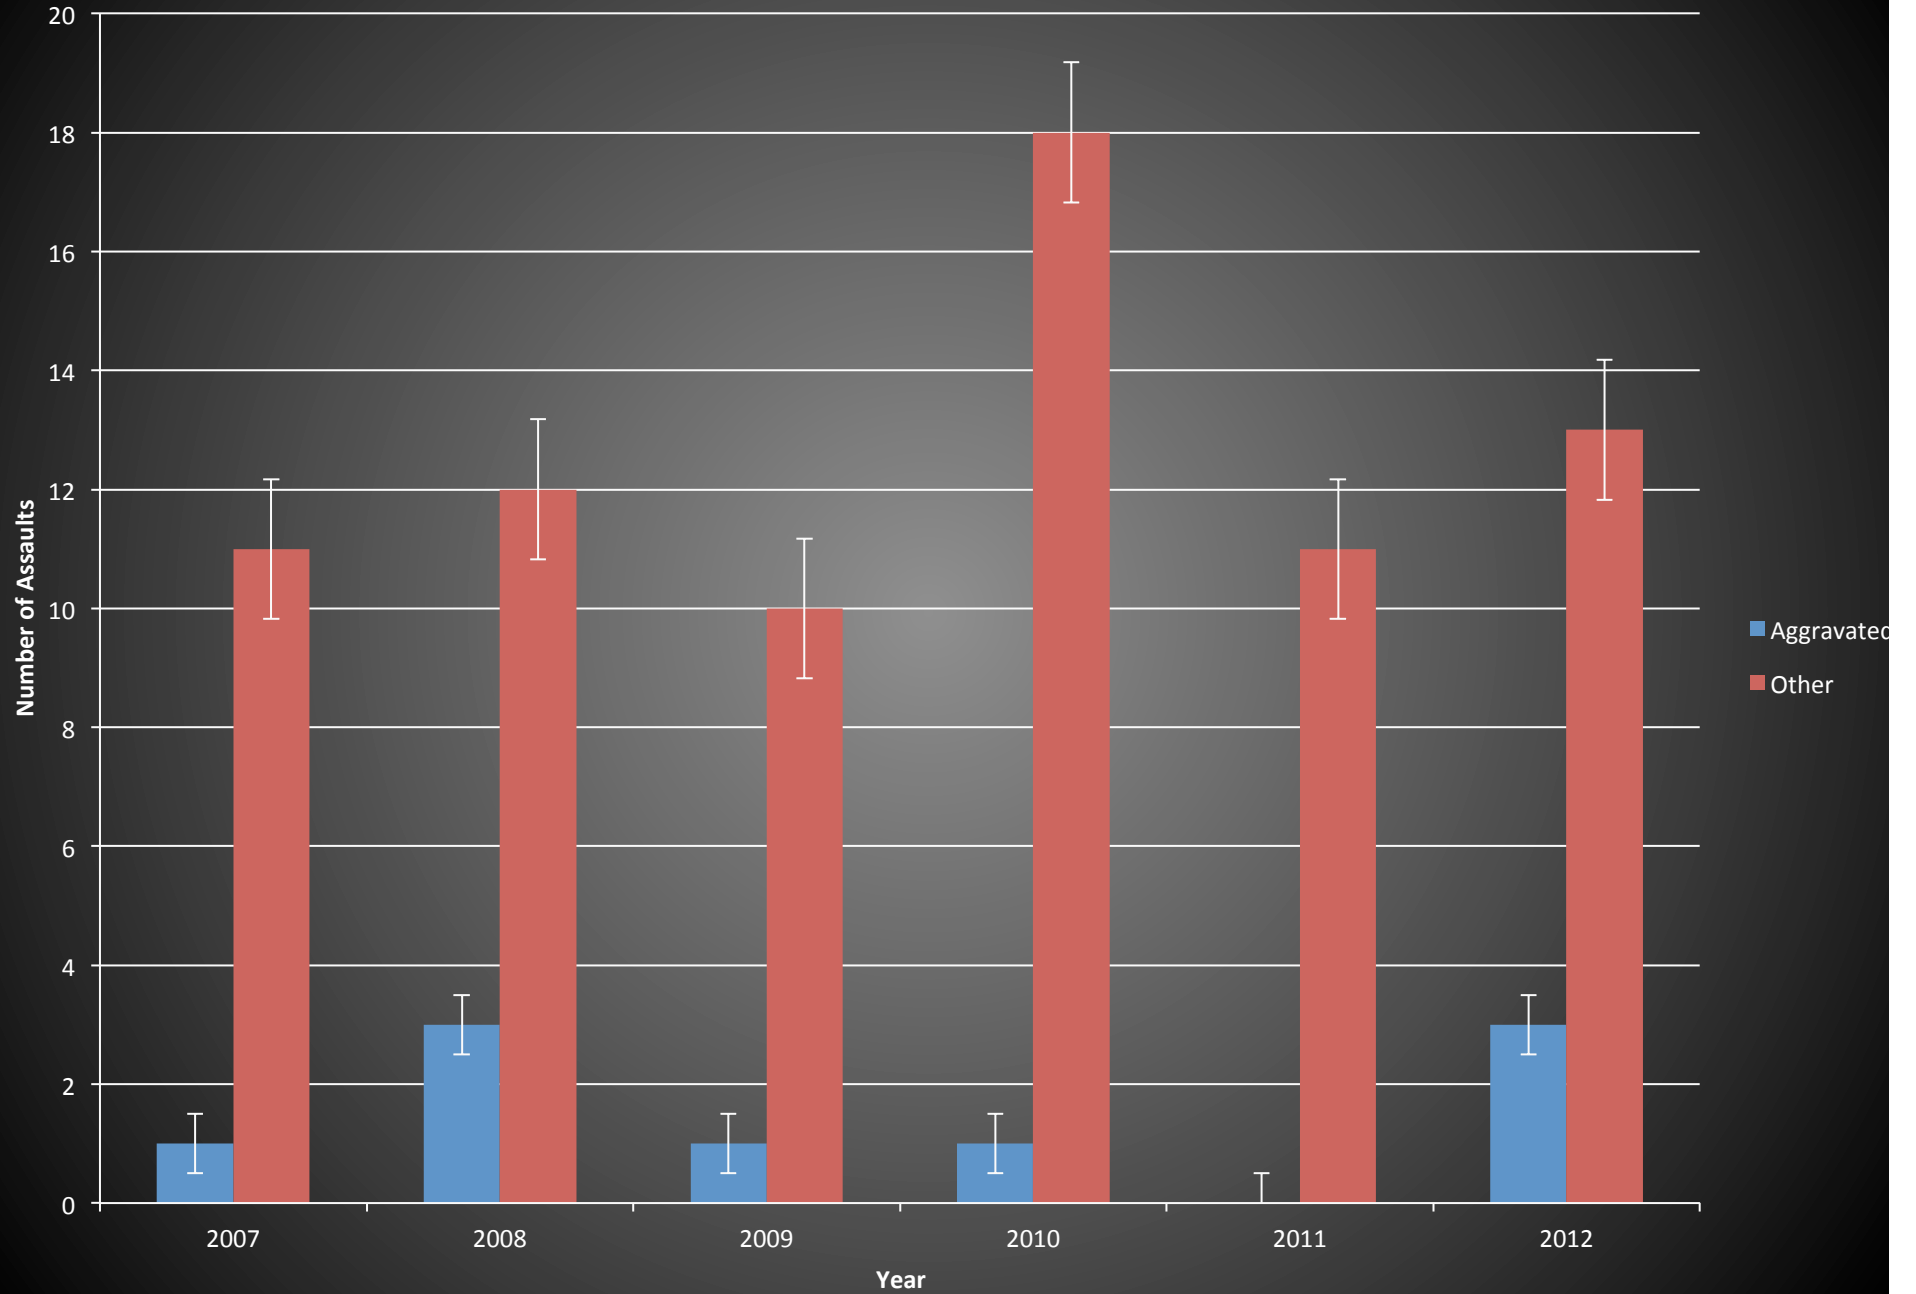

Assault, Theft, and Drug Offenses for 2004, 2007-2012

Assault

- According to the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program:
 - Aggravated assault: an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe bodily injury.
 - Simple Assault: an attack in which the victim did not sustain serious injuries

Aggravated vs. Simple Assault (2007-2012)

Assault

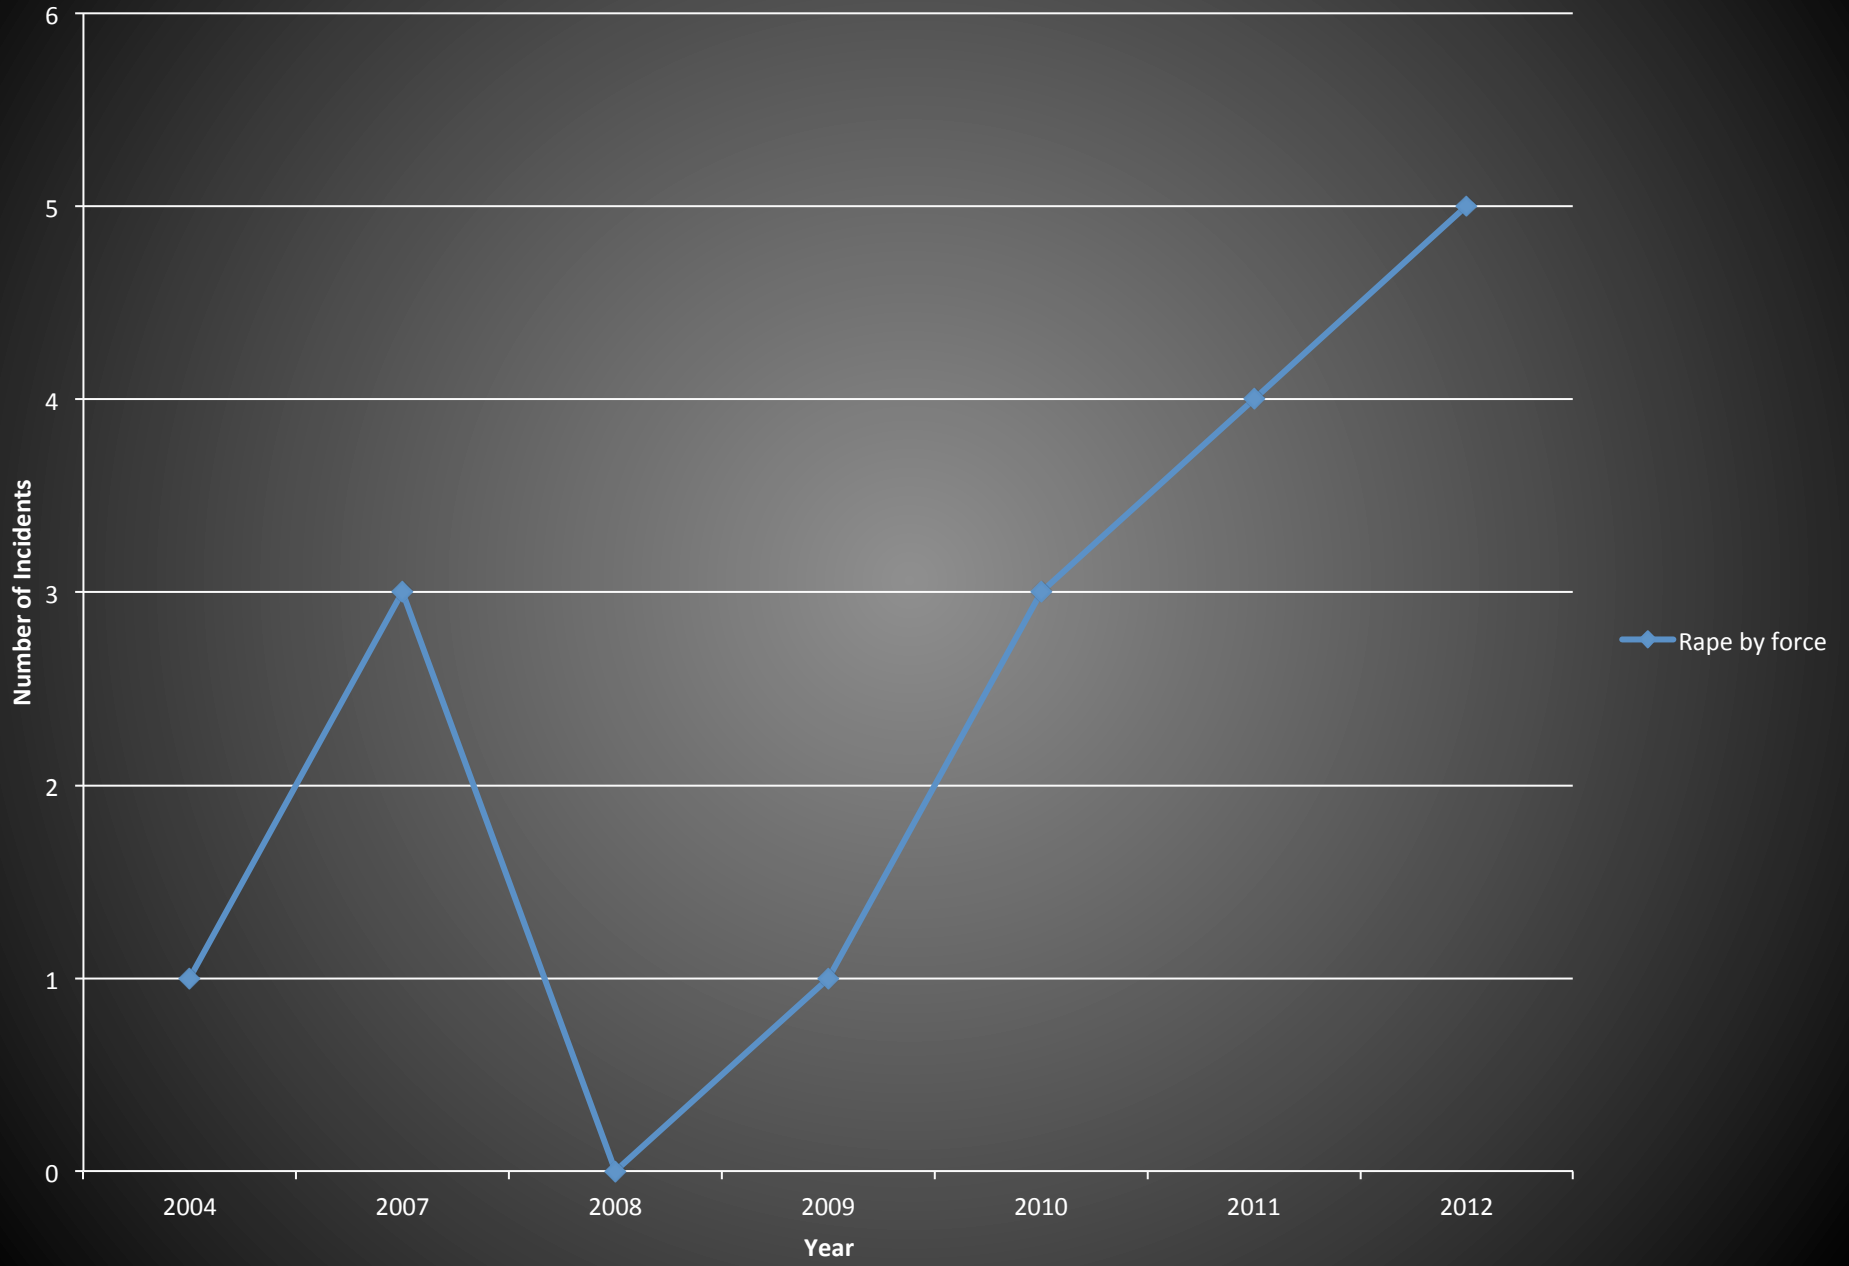

- In the years 2004 and 2005-2012, assaults (simple and aggravated) constituted less than .26% of all campus incidents

Which Crime Statistics are “On the Rise”?

- Reported Rape
- Theft
